Never has this master of farce been frenetically funnier! Henry A. Perkins, a mild-mannered CPA, accidentally picks up the wrong briefcase – one full of money. Henry assumes it is illicit cash and decides to keep it and run away to Barcelona with his wife, Jean. Jean doesn't want to go and while he tries to change her mind, the criminal to whom the money belongs keeps calling on the phone and two police detectives arrive, each for a different reason. Add Henry and Jean's closest friends and a taxi driver to the mix, and Henry's inept attempts to extricate himself from this impossible situation lead to increasingly hysterical situations. Show Description

Seemingly comfortably ensconced in his charming Connecticut home, Sidney Bruhl, a successful writer of Broadway thrillers, is struggling to overcome a "dry" spell which has resulted in a string of failures and a shortage of funds. A possible break in his fortunes occurs when he receives a script from a student in the seminar he has been conducting at a nearby college—a thriller which Sidney recognizes immediately as a potential Broadway hit. Sidney's plan, which he devises with his wife's help, is to offer collaboration to the student, an idea which the younger man quickly accepts. This dark comedy thriller will have audiences laughing one moment and screaming in terror the next as Deathtrap provides twists, turns, shocks and surprises that have held audiences rapt since its 1978 Broadway debut, where it set a record for longest-running comedy-thriller.
